MRS. STUYVESANT FISH GIVES NEWPORT BALL

opens the Big Week of Season With Splendid Affair at The Crossways.

The Temporary Ballroom Filled With Mirrors and Unusually Fine Decorations.

NEWFORT, Aug. 19.-Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish opened the big week of the Newport season in a manner befitting this fashionable resort by giving a ball to-night at The Crossways in honor of her niece, Miss Helena Fish, a taughter of Hamilton Fish daughter of Hamilton Fish.

It was preceded by notable dinners given by Mrs. Vanderbilt, Mrs. T. Suffern Taller, Mrs. Herman Oelrichs and Henry Clews.
There was added to the house for the ocasion a temporary ballroom which had all he appearance of being a permanent struc-This room was placed at the east end of the house and built somewhat lower on the terrace, being approached by a wide stairway. Its design suggested the Salle des Glaces of the palace of Versailles, the sirrors placed in each panel reflecting many mes the throng of dancers and the beautiful decorations. ful decorations.

All along the grand hall leading to the ballroom were rows of formal bay trees an pink and white hydrangeas. The stairway and alcoves of the hall were hung with Louis XVI. garlands of pink and white flowers and the main drawing room was done entirely in yellow roses. All these decorations had been arranged by Wadley & Smythe and those of the ballroom were inusually artistic.

a Smythe and those of the ballroom were injusually artistic.
Garlands and baskets of blue and rose pink flowers were thing at each mirror and one side of the room was left open, disclosing the box hedges of the garden and a long arbor of roses. Throughout this arbor were electric lights of subdued colors and there was also a fountain that played over electric lights and a basin filled with aquatic plants at one end.

ras also a fountain that played over electric lights and a basin filled with aquatic plants at one end.

Additional effect was lent by marble and succo garden seats. On either side of the broad stairway were balconies for the two bands of music decorated with screens of foliage, plants and flowers.

Mrs. Fish received at the entrance to the ballroom. She wore a Louis XVI. gown of white and gold brocade. Miss Janet fish, in pale blue chiffon embroidered with fold, and Miss Helena Fish in rose colored chiffon combined with pale green gauze, received with the hostess.

The ball was opened with an eighteenth century fantasy such as might have been witnessed at Versailles during the reign of Louis XVI. and Marie Antoinette. Soon after the guests had assembled the lights in the ballroom were turned down and in their place there was thrown over the room a moonlight effect. To the sound of quaint music there appeared from the open side of the ballroom and from under the rose rees a procession of pages headed by a musician who played on an eighteenth century wind instrument.

All were dressed in the rich brocades and silk of the period, each holding a staff covered with garlands of roses from which was suspended a silver lantern brightly illumitated. Holding gariands of ribbons and lowers the pages grouped themselves at one side of the ballroom, forming a hollow souare, in the midst of which from the rose lower stepped a group of wood nymphs led by their goldess sister and they performed a sylvan ballet symbolic of flowers and benee.

Garlands of flowers were thrown into leane.

ace. Garlands of flowers were thrown into e air, doves and butterflies being released the dancers. Then the nymphs disap-ared and six masked dancers in court sume stepped forward and executed a must whilet.

After this divertissement dancing was ceneral, the cotillon being dispensed with.
I bufiet supper was served.
Mr. and Mrs. Fish dined with Mrs. Vanderbit at the Breakers, arriving in time to greet triends who had come from other dinners.
One of the most important was given by Mrs. T. Suffern Tailer at Honeysuckle codge.

Mrs. T. Suffern Tailer at Honeysuckie odge.
Society turned out en masse this morning for the national lawn tennis tournament, he gathering being the most picturesque of out door functions of the summer. The ouris were surrounded by onlookers, the omen's costumes giving a touch of color, sometimes most startling.

Mrs. Robert Goelet wore a linen costume of Pompeian red, a black hat and plumes, diss Edith Starr Miller being in mustard colored linen embroidered in Persian colors. Mrs. J. Gordon Douglas was in bright purple satin with a rather scant skirt and a short start with a rather scant skirt and a short start with a rather scant skirt and a short start with a rather scant skirt and a short start with a rather scant skirt and a short start with a rather scant skirt and a short start with a rather scant skirt and a short start and star diss Edith Starr Miller being in mustard colored linen embroidered in Persian colors. Mrs. J. Gordon Douglas was in bright purple satin with a rather scant skirt and a short coat of the same shade. Her hat of purple straw was topped with white plumes.

Mrs. W. Starr Miller over her gown of blue and white wide striped voile wore a long coat of purple satin embroidered with red floss, her small hat of rough blue straw being bound with velvet of the same shade. Mrs. Alexander B. Pratt was in white eyelet embroidery linen, wearing a hat of bright red straw wreathed with popples of the same shade. Mrs. Henry A.

Taylor wore amethyst colored tussor doth, her hat of purple straw being wreathed with double hollyhocks of a deep rose color. Mrs. Arthur Scott Burden wore an ankle ength skirt of white serge and short coat of Dresden chintz with a Robespierre collar of black and a black chip hat topped with signettes. Miss Edith Wetmore with her zown of white linen wore a long shoulder scarl of pale green and white striped chiffon and a hat of yellow Leghorn wreathed withink flowers. Mrs. E. Clarkson Potter's coat costume of white serge was embroidered with yellow, her hat of black straw being topped with natural wheat.

Miss Helen Brown of Denver was in pink and white striped crepon, her hat of yellow straw being wreathed with pink flowers. Mrs. Arthur Curtiss James wore a costume of white striped crepon, her hat of yellow straw being wreathed with pink flowers. Mrs. Arthur Curtiss James wore a costume of white striped crepon, her hat of yellow straw being wreathed with pink flowers. Mrs. Arthur Curtiss James wore a costume of white striped crepon, her hat of yellow straw being wreathed with long that of yellow lend green, her large hat of rough blue straw being topped with long the hecked voile combined with black satin and chiffon, her hat of white crin being laced with black and topped with white

TWO BRIDES-TO-BE ABOARD.

One Was Held Up, but Her Flance Appeared Finally to Claim Her.

Two brides to be came in yesterday on the North German Lloyd liner Prinz Friedrich Wilhelm. One came in the first cabin and the other in the second abin, and while the first had no trouble in landing to meet her flance, the other was held for a while by the immigration

Miss Mabel McMullin, who came with phia, and her sister, was met by Eugene olton Stevenson. They had met in Antwerp.

In the meantime in the second cabin sat Fanny Schuetzmann of Vienna weepwhile the immigration people ugged their shoulders sympathetically came running Harry Leitel, who a dry goods store in Washington. ore a cablegram from the girl's father sending blessings. T fully in an automobile.

Miss Alice Dana Bowne, daughter of Mrs. delen Dana Bowne and a niece of the late harles A. Dana, was married yesterday in he Church of the Transfiguration to Paul Addil, whose father was formerly president of the iUniversity of Michigan and Inted States Minister to Japan. The eremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Richard Upjohn and only immediate felatives and a few friends were in atand Mrs. Azdill will live in this city he is engaged in the automobile

The Seagoers.

Sailing to-day for Europe by the North Are:

Canfield Mr. and Mrs. Roland R. Conklin Theodore Cramp Theodore Mrs. Francis Capt. Mrs. Moeller. Alfred du Pont

the Hamburg-American liner Moltke Fourne Mrs. H. K. Mr. and Mrs. John A Mott Bishop Collins A. S. Falrchild

LENOX SOCIAL AFFAIRS.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Osgood Field Give Dinner Party.

Lenox, Mass., Aug. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. William B. Osgood Field entertained a dinner party at Highlawn House to-night.

Abraham Brittin of New Orleans and Mrs. William Baugh of Philadelphia gave a musicale at Curtis Hotel this afternoon, entertaining many of the cottagers. George Rogevoy, the Russian cellist, and his orchestra played and Mrs. Mabel McKipley Baer sang.

sang, Mr. and Mrs. George Westinghouse will FOR MISS HELENA FISH go to New York to-morrow for the remainder of the week.

Mrs. William M. Van Anden, who has been at Hotel Aspinwall for several weeks, has returned to 12 West Fifty-seventh street, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Logan, who were at Hotel Aspinwail, have gone to Magnolia. Mr. and Mrs. George E. Clay and family and F. T. Bullard, who have been at Curtis Hotel for some time, have returned to New York York.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Taylor Paine, who have been making a tour through the Berkshire Hills, returned to-day to Rye, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Rickert and Miss Rickert, who have been at Curtis Hotel, have gone to Manchester, Vt., by automobile. bile.
Miss Rosamond Dixey returned to-day to Tanglewood from North East Harbor, Me.
Mr. and Mrs. H. Mitchell Mallary, who were at Curtis Hotel, have gone to Ansonia, Conn.

Conn.
F. W. Goodyear of Buffalo is entertaining
Mrs. P. H. Griffen and Mr. and Mrs. W. W.
Brine of Lockport, N. Y., at Hotel Aspinwall.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hollister Pease started to-day for Newport by automobile.
Brander Matthews of New York is a guest at the Berkshire Inn in Great Barrington.

SOCIETY AT BAR HARBOR.

Fete at Building of Arts Important as a Social Event.

BAR HARBOR, Me., Aug. 19.-Outside of BAR HARBOR, Me., Aug. 19.—Outside of the horse show, the most important social event at Bar Harbor this summer was the fete given at the Building of Arts this afternoon under the direction of Mrs. Christian Dominique Hemmick. It was an outdoor affair, with classic dancing and about a hundred of the most prominent society leaders took part.

Among those who had the personal parts were: Enchantress of Streams, Miss Louise Frith: Syrinz, Nymph of Diana, Mrs. Florence Noves: Sylphs, Mrs. D. H. Coddington, Miss Itappincott, Miss Davis, Miss Thorndike, Miss Bowler: Zephyrese, Miss Dorothes Fremont Smith: Nymphs, Miss Megargee Wright, Miss Weld, Miss Trevor: Willows, Misses S. Barnes, Pellew, Brith, Gallatin, Dabney, Calhoun, Wright, Lippincott, Mrs. Pettit, Mrs. Minis, Mrs. Washington, Miss Suvdam, Whirlucinds, Misses Townsend, Hannah Wright, Anita Sturgis: Miste, Misses Priscilla Buill, Davis, M. L. Weld, M. Weid, E. Weld, Eno, Trevor, S. B. Sturgis, Swan, M. Thorndike, McCormick, Mrs. Reliogg, Miss Bowler. Pan, Millton Bangs Bryan, Diana, Miss Renjamin Chew; Nymphs of Diana, Miss Renjamin Chew; Nymphs of Diana, Miss Alexandra Emery, Mrs. Dane Appleton Plerson, Miss Williams: Ceres, Mrs. J. Pierrepont Davis: Proserpine, Mrs. Mahan; Ariadne, Miss Mae Conover.

Notes of the Social World.

Mrs. Philip M. Lydig, who has been stay-ing in the Adirondacks during the summer will sail for Europe on the Mauretania tomorrow and will go to Kissingen for severa

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Cryder of Parls ar-rived from Europe yesterday and are stay-ing at the Gotham for several days.

Returning from Europe on the Lusitania are Col. and Mrs. Robert H. I. Goddard, who have been spending the summer in France and England. They will be at the Ritz-Cariton several days before going to their country place, Thorncliffe, East Greenwich, R. I., for the remainder of the summer. Others returning on the Lustiania who have been summering abroad are Mr. and Mrs. J. Sergeant, Cram, Mr. and Mrs. E. Francis Hyde, Mrs. John E. Alexandre and the Misses M. Civilise and Anna Alexandre. Lindon W. Bates, Edmund L. Baylles and Anna C. Hawley.

to the St. Regis for several days. Mrs. Hermann C. Fleitmann is at the Piaza for several days on a visit from he country place, Rock Lea, in Noroton, Conn.

Mrs. Robert Hinckley of Washington and her daughter. Miss Gladys Hinckley, who have been spending the summer in Europe.

Mrs. Sidney Dillon Ripley, whose engage ent was announced recently to Charles R Scott, has returned to Bar Harbor, where she is staying for the summer with he

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Turner are at th Plaza for several days.

Irwin B. Laughlin, First Secretary to the United States Embassy at Berlin, who will ness, it defied the efforts of a number of boys to make it lie flat. They were allowed the use of only one hand and the spectators seemed amused to see them fall over each other and the cheese.

Quite as mystifying to the audience were the "Spirit Paintings." Two pieces of white canvas were placed together in a frame. With a darkened stage a strong light was thrown on the apparently blank canvas and a copy of a famous masterpiece slowly developed.

Henry E. Dixey, Monologist.

Henry E. Dixey, for many years a theat ical star and recently seen in "Mary Jane's a," is back in vaudeville temporarily. appeared yesterday afternoon at Keith Union Square Theatre in an original mono-logue called "Mono-Drama-Vaud-Ologue," in which he sang a few songs and to show his versatility gave several bits of character acting. He was warmly received.

Mrs. Mackay Going Abroad.

Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay will sail for Paris on September 24 with her daughter Ellen. Mr. Mackay left last month for shoot-ing in Scotland. Mr. and Mrs. Mackay will remain abroad until November.

Swift & Company's sales of Fresh Beef in New York City for the week ending Saturday, Aug. 17, averaged !1.16 cents per pound.—Ade.

A CHURCH IN VAUDEVILLE.

It's "The Little Church Around the

The Little Church Around the Corner is, under its more formal and correct title, one of the conservative and successful parishes of the Protestant Episcopal Church Ainn R. Hawley.

Mr. and Mrs. William Thaw, who have been staying at their country place in Watch Hill, R. L. since early summer, will return to the St. Regis for several dear.

Fifth Avenue Theatre.
Of course "The Little Church Around the Corner" had actors for its dramatis persone. A successful young woman of the theatre has rebuffed her rich young and in the next wants to know what she will drink! is not to be trusted. Probably this undecided suitor. He was not comfortless. He found his consolation in the society of her friend.

She was a still younger actress who had not been successful in making her way in the theatre. She was so hard up that the of obligations as a roomer. It was to this we young girl that her friend's lover turned

"READY MONEY" OPENS THE MAXINE ELLIOTT

Farce With a Get-Rich-Quick Hero Seen for the First Time Here.

SUCCESSFUL ELSEWHERE

that was seen yesterday afternoon at the Good Acting in a Novelly Turned Play That Pleases the Audience.

"Ready Money"-At the Maxine Elliott
Stephen Baird William Courtenay William Stewart Norman Tharp
James E. Morgan Scott Cooper
Jackson Ives Joseph Kilgour
Grace Tyler
Ida Tyler

landlady openly taunted her about the lack of punctuality with which she met her before "Ready Money," which came last night to open the Maxine Elliott Theamarry Miss Februse E Bello, daughter of the summer place on the Kaler Whitem II, due for society. But the happened to call for her where Miss Itelia is staying for the summer late that the staying for the summer place that the staying for the summer late that the staying for the summer place of the staying for the summer summer place of the staying for the summer place of the staying for the summer summer place of the staying for the summer summer which the moving picture play of Sarah Bernhardt in "Queen Elizabeth" will be savenhibited at popular prices in all of the sevenhibited at popular prices in

"Ready Money" made the audience at the Maxine Elliott Theatre last night laugh almost incessantly.

Probably on reflection there will be nothing to make the spectators ashamed of their enjoyments, for the only faults in the three acts of the new farce reside in the impossibility of its motives. Yet there probably never were in the long list of plays founded on the treatment by the world of those who possess the appearance of wealth and importance any that were not necessarily improbable.

Mr. Montgomery has given this old theme a refreshing aspect of novelty.

William Courtenay—who used none of the money which was destroyed in the last act and has merely served a spectacular purpose—played the hero with a youthful inconsequence that made it impossible to apply any ethical test to his conduct. In gesture and facial expression he dramatized the author's ideas graphically. Joseph Kilgour as the fantastic forger gave the role a degree of plausibility which was the highest proof of his skill.

Leo Donnelly as a plunging but prudent investor, James Bradbury as a retired banker anxious for another fling at business, Scott Cooper and Ben Johnson were admirable figures in the collection of good actors that helped to swell the full measure of "Ready Money's" success in New York.

Well Received.
"Pousse Cafe"-Columbia Theatre.
Kate Standley Agnes Behle
Rose Murphy Inez De Verdie
Marie Fougure Louie Ric
Frank Standley Mart Thompso
Henri De France James X. France
Jack AstorFred Collin
Levi Cohn
Private Secretary
The Thief Dave Mario
Snuffy

NATHANIEL D. JONES.

Old Time Boston Actor Was Contemperary of Harrigan and Hart.

BOSTON, Aug. 19.—Nathaniel D. Jones an old time Boston actor, known in his but who had been living in retirement for ten years or more, died yesterday at his home in North Scituate at the age of 74. His death was due to a general breakdown. Mr. Jones will be remembered best by veteran theatregoers in connection with the stock company at the Howard Atheneum when the late John Stetson was manager of it, from thirty-five to forty years ago.

Mr. Jones was a character actor in the stock, always having an important rôle in the buriesque, the extravaganza or melo-drams. Those were the days at the Howard drama. Those were the days at the Howard of Alice Oates, Ada Richmond, Harry Bloodgood, Andy Leavitt, Jennie Engle, Delehanty and Hengler, Jim Maffit and W. H. Bartholomew, the kings of pantomime; Gus Williams, Josh Hart, Nellie Larkelle, Harrigan and Hart, Cool Burgess and, once a year, Tony Pastor.

After eight years at the Howard, when John Stetson gave up that theatre for the more aristocratic Globe and sent out combinations on the road, Nat Jones was for years a member of one of Stetson's companies. One of Stetson's early stars was James O'Neill, who played "Monte Cristo," and Jones was with him for years.

Mr. Jones was one of the incorporators of the Boston Lodge of Elks and also a founder of the theatrical summer colony at Scituate, among his associates there having been George Boniface and Charles Bradshaw, old time Shakespearian come-

Mrs. Jones, who survives her husband, was Molly Newton, who belonged to the Boston Museum Stock Company at the time

SIMON MANDEL.

Pioneer Merchant of Chicago Worked Upward From Apprenticeship.

CRICAGO, Aug. 19.—Simon Mandel, president of Mandel Bros., pioneer merchant of Chicago and the last of three brothers who built the business of the big State street institution from a small store, died to-day at his home on' Drexel boulevard from a complication of diseases. He was 75 years old and for more than a year he had been too ill to engage in active business, spending most of his time in California.

Starting to make his own way in the world as a boy, he became an apprentice to a firm of upholsterers and followed this trade for of uphoisterers and followed this trade for several years until he had saved a consid-erable sum of money, when he bought an interest in the dry goods firm of which his brother Solomon was junior partner. Subsequently with his brothers, Leon and Emanuel, he founded the present firm of Mandel Bros.

Four daughters and five sons survive him. Before his health gave way he was prominent in the club and social life and also in the philanthropic work of his race.

He was born in Kerzinheim, Germany, March 20, 1837. After receiving his education in the common schools of Germany Mr. Mandel came to the United States in 1852. He married Miss Pauline Schwab of Natchez, Miss., in 1865. Mrs. Mandel died three years ago. Mandel Bros.

WILLIS LEONARD CLANAHAN.

Writer of Verse Was Under Care of Former Wife.

St. Louts, Aug. 19.—Willis Leonard Clanahan, writer of verse that attracted national attention and for a number of years contributing to the New York World and St. Louis Post-Despatch, died this afternoon at the Christian Hospital of uremic poisoning.

He was taken to the hospital four days

He was taken to the hospital four days ago from the Wellington Hotel by direction of his former wife, Miss Leonora Thiele of of his former wife, Miss Leonors I hiele of 4024 Lindell boulevard, who gave him her care during his illness.

She telegraphed to relatives of Clanahan in Louisville, Ky., before making funeral arrangements. Clanahan was 45 years of age. He was born at Metropolis, III., where his father was a clergyman.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Charles W. Hand died yesterday at her home, 457 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. She was Julia Waller, the daughter of the Rev. David Jewitt Waller and Julia Elimaker Waller, and was born at Bloomsburg Pa. She was educated at Elmira College and in 1882 married Charles W. Hand, vice president of the Underwood Typewriter Company and president of the Davis Oil Company. For the last twenty-nine years the couple had lived in Brooklyn. Mrs. Hand was a member of the Lafayette Avenue Presbyterian Church and one of its mos Anthony of Cleveland. Ohio; Miss Charlotte S. Hand, Miss Julia E. Hand and Miss Dor the Pennsylvania State Normal School Bioomsburg; L. E. Waller, an attorney Wilkesbarre, Pa., and Dr. G. P. Waller South Pasadena, Cal., are living. The neral services will be conducted at 457 Clin avenue on Wednesday afternoon by the A. W. Halsey.

Marietta Barkley Ludington, 72 years of age, widow of Benjamin L. Ludington, of 44 East Sixty-ninth street, died at Greenwich. Conn. on Sunday afternoon. She was born in New York and was the daughter of Rob-ert Barkley, who was president of the old Broadway stage line, one of the founders of the Citizens Insurance Company and on n 1984, was appointed Appraiser of the Port of New York by President Lincoln. Mrs. Ludington is survived by one son, Dr. R. B. Ludington, and two daughters, Mrs. Eugene

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 19.—Capt. John Conrad, 88 years old, one of the old regime of business men of Philadelphia, died early this morning at his home, 5625 Carpenter street, from the infirmities of old age. He had been iil but a week, prior to that time attending to his brewing business. Capt Conrad was one of the survivors of the Sev-enteenth Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers. and was a member of many fraternal organ izations. The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—W. S. Crosby, formore than thirty years a prominent figure on the Board of Trade, died to-day from acute indigestion in St. Luke's Hospital. Mr Crosby, who was $5 years old, had been ill for several months. Mr. Crosby for the last ten years was floor manager on the Board of Trade for Shearson, Hammil & Co. He was considered one of the deans of the board. He is survived by his wife, two sons and two daughters.

Carlos Rodriguez. Carlos Rodriguez, son of Salvatore Rod-riguez, president of the firm of Salvatore Rodriguez, tobacco manufacturers, 120 Water street, died yesterday in Paris, where he had one with his family in the hope of improing his health. Mr. Rodriguez, who was 2 years old, had but recently been graduated from college, and had entered his father's firm. About four months ago his health be-gan to fall and with the hope that a trip abroad would benefit him the family went to Europe. PHOENIXVILLE, Pa., Aug. 18.—Dewitt Clinton Radeliffs, 56 years of age, a native of Chester county, died to-day. The deceased was a backeler and retired many years age. For twenty years he had been known here as the "boys" best friend," gaining the title by his practice of making baseballs and dietributing them free among the boys.

MORE THAN 10,000 VIEW BODY OF FATHER DOYLE

mmense Crowds Inside and Without Church of St. Paul the Apostle.

INTERMENT IN TOWER

Cardinal Farley and an Array of Distinguished Clergy at the Services.

The body of the late Very Rev. Alexander

P. Doyle of the Paulist Fathers, who died in St. Mary's Hospital, San Francisco, on August 9, was laid at rest yesterday afternoon in the vault in the tower of the Roman Catholic Church of St. Paul the Apostle, Sixtieth street and Columbus avenue, where the remains of the other dead priests of the Paulist community repose.

Paulist community repose.

More than 10,000 people visited the church and viewed the body of Father Doyle. All night bands of men with the priests of the community kept guard, while from 5 o'clock until 8 o'clock fifty masses were said by the Paulist and visiting clergy. More than 1,000 people received the sacrament for the dead.

The selemn high requires

The solemn high requiem mass was cele-brated at 10:30 A. M. The Rev. John J. Hughes, rector of the church, was the cele-brant and he was assisted by the Rev.

brant and he was assisted by the Rev. Thomas Daly, deacon, and the Rev. Thomas Cullen, local superior of the Paulist Fathers in San Francisco, sub-deacon. The Paulist orator, the Rev. Walter Elliott, preached the sermon. Cardinal Farley pronounced the benediction at the conclusion of the mass.

As the body lay before the altar a continual stream of people passed up and down the aisles. When the mass began there were more than 4,000 people in the church. The aisles were jammed so tightly that it was impossible for the priests to hold the procession around the church which they had planned. Those who were unable to enterplanned. Those who were unable to enter the edifice congregated outside the doors and many waited until the services had been concluded.

pianner. Inose who were unable to enter the edifice congregated outside the doors and many waited until the services had been concluded.

A large number of distinguished prelates were seated inside the chancel rail and in the choir stalls alongisde of the altar. They came from all sections of the country. Among them were the Jesuit Bishop Collins, the Augustine Bishop Jones, Bishop Harkins of Providence, Bishop O'Connell of Richmond, Va.: Father Hanselmann, Provincial of the Jesuits: Father Campbell, S. J.: editor of the Catholic paper America: Provincial Gerardus of the Christian Brothers, the Rev. James A. Walsh, president of the new seminary of foreign missions: Mgrs. McCreedy, Edwards, Wall, Hayes, chancellor of the diocese, Kean, rector of the Church of the Holy Name; Lewis, Cardinal Farley's secretary: Me-Makin, Taylor, rector of the Church of the Holy Name; Lewis, Cardinal Farley's secretary: Me-Makin, Taylor, rector of the Church of the Blessed Sacrament; McGean, rector of St. Peter's Church on Barclay street; Kearney, McKenna, Dunn, director of the Society of the Propagation of the Faith, Mackin of Washington, Doran of Providence, the Rev. John P. Chidwick, chaplain of the battleship Maine when she was sunk in Havana harbor: the Rev. Damian O'Rourke, the Rev. C. H. McKenna, the Rev. P. P. O'Dwyer, the Rev. Augustin Waldoon, the Rev. J. H. Rockwell, S. J. the Rev. J. J. Lynch, the Rev. P. Augustin Robinson, the Rev. A. Letellier, rector of St. Ann's in East Seventy-six th street, the Rev. George A. Dougherty, vice-chancellor of the Catholic University in Washington; the Rev. J. M. Motther Rev. J. H. Rockwell, S. J. F. Fenlon of the Catholic University in Washington; the Rev. J. H. Machine, chaplain of the board of directors of the Missionary Union was held after the mass. Cardinal Farley presided and offered resolutions of sympathy for the Paulist Fathers on the death of Father Doyle, who had been the best and treasured.

FRANK J. MULCAHY.

New England Manufacturer Won

Attention by World's Fair Work. BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Aug. 19.-Frank J. Mulcahy, one of the leading manufacturers of New England, died to-day at St. Vincent's Hospital following an operation pendicitis.

Mr. Mulcahy began life as a telegrapher

Mr. dujckly advanced for the Pennsylvania and quickly advanced he entered mercantile fields and in 1891 he Chicago to become purchasing agent for the World's Fair. His great success commanded the attention of the leading manufacturers of the country, and following the exposition he became purchasing agent for the Crane Company. In 1905 he was sent to Bridgeport to take charge of the Eastern mained general manager and vice-president of the Crane Value Company, the Eastern corporation, until his death. He was a prominent member of the Catholic Engineers, Machinery and Hardware clubs of New York city, as well as the Bridgeport Yacht Club and the Brooklawn Country Club. He was 53 years of age. Beside his widow, who was Miss Belle Place of Chicago, his aged parents, two unmarried sisters a brother, William, all living in Cleveland, his birthplace, survive him.

BOVEE. - At Vineyard Haven, Mass., of Sunday August 18, 1912, Mary M. Bovee, wife of th late C. N. Bovee. Interment Greenwood Cemetery.

CORNWALL .- On Sunday, August 18. at Bridgeport, Conn., Jesse B. Cornwall, aged 56. Puneral August 20 at 2 P. M. FOSTER.—On August 19, at Marbiehead Neck, Mass., Marion, beloved baby of Pierrepost Beers and Elizabeth Bowen Foster.

Funeral private. Kindly do not send flowers. GIBSON.—Thomas, aged 27 years. "THE FU-NEBAL CHURCH," 241 West 28d st. (FRANK E. CAMPRELL BLDG.), Wednesday, 8 o'clock. Automobile cortege. Friends invited.

HAINES.—At Toms River, N. J., on Sunday, August 18, 1912, William A. Haines, in his 67th year, son of the late William
A. and Emily S. Haines.
Funeral services will be held at Christ Church, Toms River, N. J., on Wednesday, August 21, at 1:30 P. M. Train leaves foot of Liberty st., New York, at HAND.—On Monday, August 19, 1912, Julia Ellmaher Waller, wife of Charles W. Hand and daughter of the late Rev. David Jewalt and Julia Elimaher Waller Funeral services will be held at her late resi-dence, 457 Clinton av., Brooklyn, Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

AVEMEYER.—On Sunday, August 18, James Havemeyer, son of the late William F. Have-meyer and Sarah A. Havemeyer. Funeral from his late residence, 401 West End av., on Tuesday, August 20, at 10 A. M. LUDINGTON.-Suddenly, at Greenwich, Conn. on Sunday, August 18, Marietta Ludington

(nee Barkley), wife of the late Benjamin L. Funeral services will be held at her home. 44 Fast 69th st., on Wednesday morning, August

21, at 11:30 o clock. Interment at the conven nce of the family. MULCAHY .-- At Bridgeport, Conn., August 19. Prank J. Mulcahy, formerly of Cleveland, Ohio, vice-president Crane Valve Company, aged 53 years. neral Thursday at 9 A. M. at inte residence RODRIGUEZ .- Carlos Rodriguez, son of Salvados

Rodriguez, in Paris, France, on August 14. Particulars of funeral later. UNDERTAKERA

FRANK E. CAMPBELL Auto Service

MOTOR HEARSES OFFRITER